

CANADA-B.C. JOB GRANT

Attention:

Based upon your application for funding under the Canada-BC Job Grant program ("CJG"), we are pleased to inform you that we have approved the Training Provider, Training and Eligible Training Costs set out in Schedule A – Grant Services. (Please refer to Schedule B for additional defined terms used in this "Approval Letter" (Schedule B governs if there is an inconsistency between provisions)).

When you have accepted all parts of this agreement, the following provisions of this Approval Letter, along with the Schedules A – Grant Services (the Approved Training and Eligible Training Costs) and B – Definitions and General Terms, will form a Shared Cost Agreement between you and the Province. When the Agreement is in place, your primary obligations and the grant reimbursement claim process will be as follows:

1. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, we will reimburse you for up to 2/3 of the Eligible Training Costs, to the amount shown in Schedule A ("Reimbursement").
2. You must submit a claim for reimbursement of Eligible Training Costs using the Canada-BC Job Grant system, along with copies of all receipts and any Reports or other supporting documentation reasonably required by us. This Reimbursement Claim may be submitted as soon as Training starts and must be received by us no later than 30 days after start of the Training program set out in Schedule A – Grant Services. If a Reimbursement Claim is not received within the 30 day period, you will no longer be eligible for a grant.
3. You must arrange and pay for the Training in full, and the Participants must start their Training, in accordance with Schedule A – Grant Services, before a Reimbursement Claim can be submitted.
4. Participants must be at least 15 years old and be Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents or Protected Persons entitled to work in Canada. You are responsible to ensure that participants submit Participant Information Forms using the Canada-BC Job Grant system. If a Participant is found to be ineligible, payment will be prorated for eligible Participants only. Reimbursement payments will normally be made within 60 days following receipt of the Reimbursement Claim. Any costs or expenses that are not reimbursed by us will remain your responsibility as part of the Employer Contribution.
5. All or any part of the Reimbursement paid to you may later be deemed by us to be an Overpayment if:

Training Start and end dates may be modified in the Canada-Job Grant system without prior approval of the Province as long as Training starts within the approved Training period and no other material changes are made to the Training program or Training provider. The Training start date cannot be moved outside of the Training period for which the Training was approved.

If we do not receive your acceptance of the Agreement by way of your electronic signature by the date set out in Schedule A – Grant Services, this agreement will expire.

HOLDBACK AND SET-OFF

2. We may temporarily withhold or set-off from any payment to you the amount of any Overpayment.

RELATIONSHIP AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST

3. Even though both Parties have certain obligations relating to Training costs, you are an independent contractor and no partnership, joint venture, agency or other legal entity or structure will be created or deemed to be created by this Agreement or any actions of the Parties under this Agreement.

4. You must not in any way commit or purport to commit the Province to the payment of money to any person or entity.

11. Either Party may terminate this Agreement by giving the other Party at least 30 days’ written notice.

12. We may also terminate this Agreement, with immediate effect, if we determine that any action or inaction by you places the health or safety of any person at immediate risk.

13. In the event that this Agreement is terminated by either Party, we will pay the Eligible Training Costs in respect of any Training completed on or before the effective date of termination, less any outstanding Overpayment, which will discharge us of all liability to you under this Agreement.
